4.13.8 Employee leaving during notice

An employee whose employment is terminated for reasons set out in clause 4.13.1(a), may terminate such employment during the period of notice, and, if so, shall be entitled to the same benefits and payments under this clause had such employee remained with the employer until the expiry of such notice:

Provided that in such circumstances the employee shall not be entitled to payment in lieu of notice.

4.13.9 Alternative employment

An employer, in a particular case, may make application to the Commission to have the general severance pay prescription amended if the employer obtains acceptable alternative employment for an employee.

4.13.10 Employees with less than one year's service

Clause 4.13 shall not apply to employees with less than one year's continuous service and the general obligation on employers should be no more than to give relevant employees an indication of the impending redundancy at the first reasonable opportunity, and to take such steps as may be reasonable to facilitate the obtaining by the employees of suitable alternative employment.

4.13.11 Employees exempted

Clause 4.13 shall not apply:

PART 5 - WAGES AND WAGE RELATED MATTERS

5.1 Generic level statements

Generic level statements for each of the Classification Levels of the Operational Stream are prescribed in Schedule 1 of this Award.

These statements reflect the degree of complexity and responsibility of duties, skills and knowledge proceeding from the lowest to the highest Classification Levels. Their purpose is to provide an indication as to the Classification Level appropriate to any packaging of duties.

5.2 Stream allocation

Allocation to the Operational Stream is prescribed in Schedule 2 of this Award.

5.3 Job evaluation

An Employer will use the same job evaluation methodology as is prescribed by the Recruitment and Selection Directive issued under s. 53 of the Public Service Act 2008.

5.4 Work allocation

An employee having either been appointed or relieving in a position within a Classification Level may be allocated and subsequently reallocated to any position within that particular Classification Level.

5.5 Movement between classification levels

5.5.1 Movement between Classification levels will be based on appointment on merit to advertised vacancies. Clause 5.5.1 will not apply to movement between levels 1 and 2 of the Operational Stream where annual Increments will continue to apply in accordance with the relevant provisions of clause 5.6.

5.5.2 Every employee, upon attaining the age of 21 years, will be paid, except on promotion or otherwise prescribed, the age 21 wage rate as provided in Classification Level 2 Paypoint one.

5.5.3 An employee promoted to a position at a higher Classification Level will be appointed to Paypoint one of that higher Classification level.

5.5.4 An external applicant (that is an applicant who is not an employee) who is appointed to a position may be appointed to any Paypoint within a level, based on recognition of skills, knowledge and abilities. An Employer will, on appointment of an employee, approve the commencing Paypoint within the applicable Classification Level for the position.

5.6 Movement within classification levels

5.6.1 An increase to the salary of an employee will not be made until:

- (a) in the case of a full-time employee, the employee has received such salary for a period of 12 months;
- (b) in the case of a Part-time employee, the employee has received such salary for the equivalent of 12 months full-time service.

Clause 5.6.1 will not apply in the case of an employee who is paid the prescribed basic salary on attaining the age of 21 years or in the case where an employee is promoted from one Classification Level to another.

5.6.2 An employee will not be entitled to receive annual salary Increments provided by this Award unless:

- (a) in the case of an employee in Levels 1 or 2, the conduct, diligence and general efficiency of the employee has been certified by an Employer to have been and to be satisfactory;

(b) in the case of an employee in any other Classification Level, performance objectives have been achieved as certified by an Employer.

5.6.3 Where an Increment prescribed by this Award is withheld from or refused to be granted to an employee, an appeal by the employee may be made to the chief executive of the Public Service Commission.

5.7 Performance of higher duties

Where an Employer directs an employee to perform the full duties and responsibilities of a position at a higher Classification Level under this Award for a period of more than 3 working days, the employee will be paid extra remuneration at the first Paypoint of the Classification Level of the position being temporarily filled, for the period involved.

5.8 Wage rates

The wages payable to employees under this Award are expressed as fortnightly rates and are as follows:

Classification	Paypoint	Wage Per fortnight $

	3	2,479.40

The rates of pay in this clause comprise the minimum rates payable under this Award.

The rates incorporate adjustments based upon the Agricultural Colleges of Queensland Certified Agreement 2000 (CA70 of 2001).

The rates of pay in this Award are intended to include the arbitrated wage adjustment payable under the 1 September 2013 Declaration of General Ruling and earlier Safety Net Adjustments and arbitrated wage adjustments. This arbitrated wage adjustment may be offset against any equivalent amount in rates of pay received by employees whose wages and conditions of employment are regulated by this Award which are above the wage rates prescribed in the Award. Such payments include wages payable pursuant to certified agreements, currently operating enterprise flexibility agreements, award amendments to give effect to enterprise agreements and overaward arrangements. Absorption which is contrary to the terms of an agreement is not required.

Increases made under previous State Wage Cases or under the current Statement of Principles, excepting those resulting from enterprise agreements, are not to be used to offset arbitrated wage adjustments.

5.9 Payment of wages

Wages will be paid fortnightly by electronic funds transfer and not more than 2 days wages will be kept in hand.

An employee may seek exemption from this method of payment in special and exceptional circumstances. However, payment other than by electronic funds transfer will be at the discretion of the Employer.

5.10 Allowances

5.10.1 Broken work allowance

- (a) All employees engaged on work where the ordinary hours of duty are subject to a break in continuity will be paid an allowance at the rate of $7.16 per day for each day so worked.

A break in continuity of work on any day does not include where an employee takes a meal break up to a maximum of one hour and rest pauses as prescribed by this Award.

5.11 Superannuation

Subject to federal legislation, the employer must comply with superannuation arrangements prescribed in the Superannuation (State Public Sector) Act 1990 (and associated Deed, Notice and Regulation).

Where federal legislation provides for choice of fund rights to an employee subject to this Award, and that employee fails to elect which superannuation fund to which employer contributions are directed, the employer will direct contributions to such fund as prescribed by the abovementioned Queensland legislation.

PART 6 - HOURS OF WORK, BREAKS, OVERTIME, WEEKEND WORK

6.1 Hours of work

6.1.1 Subject to clause 6.2 'Implementation of 38 Hour Week', and subject to the exceptions hereinafter provided, the ordinary hours of work will be an average of 38 hours per week, to be worked on one of the following basis:

- (a) 38 hours within a work cycle not exceeding 7 consecutive days; or
- (b) 76 hours within a work cycle not exceeding 14 consecutive days; or
- (c) 114 hours within a work cycle not exceeding 21 consecutive days; or

(d) 152 hours within a work cycle not exceeding 28 consecutive days.

6.1.2 The ordinary hours of work will not exceed 10 hours per day and will be worked within a spread of 12 hours between 5.00 a.m. and 12 midnight.

Where the ordinary working hours are to exceed 8 on any day, the arrangement of hours will be subject to the agreement of the Employer and the majority of employees concerned.

6.1.3 The ordinary working hours will be rostered to provide for 3 working periods within the span of hours specified in clause 6.1.2.

6.1.4 Ordinary work performed outside the hours of 5.00 a.m. to 12 midnight will attract overtime rates as provided in clause 6.4.

6.1.5 The ordinary weekly working hours of employees will be worked within a period of 5 days and wherever practicable, an employee's 2 days off will be on consecutive days.

6.1.6 Where there is agreement between the Employer and the majority of employees concerned, the ordinary starting and finishing times of various groups of employees or individual employees may be staggered.

6.1.7 Employees are required to observe the nominated starting and finishing times for the work day, including designated breaks to maximise available working time.

6.1.8 Preparation for work and cleaning up of the employee's person will be in the employee's time.

6.2 Implementation of a 38 hour week

6.2.1 The 38 hour week will be implemented on one of the following basis, most suitable to each location, after consultation with, and giving reasonable consideration to the wishes of the employees concerned:

(a) by employees working less than 8 ordinary hours each day; or

(b) by employees working less than 8 ordinary hours on one or more days each work cycle; or

(c) by rostering employees off on various days of the week during a particular work cycle, so that each employee has one work day off during that cycle.

6.2.2 Subject to clause 6.1.2, employees may agree that the ordinary hours of work are to exceed 8 on any one day in order that more than one work day may be taken off during a particular work cycle.

6.2.3 Notwithstanding clause 6.2, where the arrangement of ordinary hours of work provides for a rostered day off, the Employer and the majority of employees concerned, may agree to accrue up to a maximum of 5 rostered days off. Where agreement has been reached, the accrued rostered days off will be taken within 12 calendar months of the date on which the first rostered day off was accrued. Consent to accrue rostered days off will not be unreasonably withheld by either party.

6.2.4 Different methods of implementation of the 38 hour week may apply to individual employees, groups or sections of employees in each location concerned.

6.3 Procedure for discussions - 38 hour week

6.3.1 An Employer and all employees concerned in each establishment will consult over the most appropriate means of implementing and working a 38 hour week.

6.3.2 The objective of consultation will be to reach agreement on the method of implementing and working the 38 hour week in accordance with clause 6.2 "Implementation of a 38 hour week".

6.3.3 The outcome of consultation will be recorded in writing.

6.3.4 Notwithstanding the consultative procedures outlined above, and notwithstanding any lack of agreement by employees, the Employer will have the right to make the final determination as to the method by which the 38 hour week is implemented or worked from time to time.

6.3.5 After implementation of the 38 hour week, upon giving 7 days' notice or such shorter period as may be mutually agreed upon, the method of working the 38 hour week may be altered, from time to time, following negotiations between an Employer and employees concerned utilising the foregoing provisions of clause 6.3, including clause 6.3.4.

6.4 Rest pauses

Employees will be entitled to 2 rest pauses per day, each of 10 minutes duration. These rest pauses will be taken at times that will not interfere with continuity of work when continuity is required.

Consistent with clause 6.1.3, the 2 rest pauses may be combined to allow for the flexibility of 3 working periods per day.

6.5 Overtime

6.5.1 All authorised time worked by employees in excess of the ordinary hours of work as prescribed in this Award or outside the daily spread of working hours or outside the daily and/or weekly rostered hours will be deemed overtime.

6.5.2 Ordinary work performed outside the hours of 5.00 a.m. to 12 midnight will attract overtime rates.

6.6 Payment for working overtime

6.6.1 Overtime will be paid for at the rate of time and a-half for the first 3 hours and double time thereafter.

6.6.2 Overtime performed by employees on a Sunday will be paid for at the rate of double time.

6.7 Rest period after overtime

An employee who works so much overtime between the termination of ordinary work on the one day and the commencement of ordinary work on the next day who has not had at least 10 consecutive hours off duty between those times will be released after completion of the overtime until the employee has had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during the absence.

If on the instructions of the Employer an employee resumes or continues work without having had 10 consecutive hours off duty, the employee will be paid double rates until released from duty for such period. The employee will then be entitled to be absent until the employee has had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

6.8 Week-end penalty rates

All time worked between midnight on Friday and midnight on Sunday up to and including 8 hours in any one shift will be paid for at one and one-half times the ordinary rate of pay prescribed by this Award.

PART 7 - LEAVE OF ABSENCE AND PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

7.1.1 Annual leave entitlement

- (a) All full-time employees will accumulate 12.667 hours annual leave for each completed month of employment.
- (b) All employees will have their annual leave entitlements debited by the number of ordinary hours they would have worked between Christmas Day and New Year's Day inclusive when there is a compulsory closure of a College over the Christmas/New Year period, except for those employees who, to meet operational needs of a College, are required by an Employer to be in attendance during the closure period.

7.1.2 Annual leave debits

Annual leave debits will be equivalent to the ordinary hours employees would have worked had they not been on paid leave. Such leave will therefore be paid and debited on the basis of hours actually taken.

7.1.3 Rostered day off arising from the implementation of the 38 hour week

An employee will not derive any additional benefit for rostered days off falling within a period of annual leave.

7.1.4 Annual leave exclusive of public holidays

- (b) All employees - Subject to clause 7.1.6(c), in no case will the payment by an Employer to an employee be less than the sum of the following amounts:
 - (i) the employee's ordinary wage rate as prescribed by this Award for the period of the annual leave (excluding shift premiums and week-end penalty rates).
 - (ii) leading hand allowance or amounts of a like nature.
 - (iii) a further amount calculated at the rate of 17 1/2 percent of the amounts referred to in clause 7.1.6(b) (i) and (ii).
- (c) Clause 7.1.6(b) will not apply to the following:
 - (i) any period or periods of annual leave exceeding 152 hours;

Employees may be required to take their annual leave during College vacations. In all other circumstances annual leave will be taken at a time mutually agreed to between the Employer and the employee.

7.1.8 Annual leave to be taken

An Employer will give reasonable notice of the commencement of annual leave to an employee.

7.1.9 Proportionate annual leave on termination

If the employment of any employee is terminated at the expiration of a full year of employment, the Employer will be deemed to have given the annual leave of the employee from the date of the termination of the employment and will forthwith pay to the employee in addition to all other amounts due to the employee, the employee's pay, calculated in accordance with clause 7.1.7, for the employee's annual leave entitlements and also the employee's ordinary hours pay for any public holiday occurring during such period of annual leave.

7.1.10 If the employment of any employee is terminated before the expiration of a full year of employment, such employee will be paid, in addition to all other amounts due, an amount equal to 1/12th of the employee's pay for the period of the employee's employment, calculated in accordance with clause 7.1.7.

7.2 Sick leave

7.2.1 Sick leave entitlement

Every employee will be entitled to not less than 60.8 hours sick leave for each completed year of employment with an Employer.

For any completed period of employment of less than one year with an Employer, an employee will become entitled to 7.6 hours sick leave for each 6 week period.

7.2.2 Where the arrangement of ordinary working hours provides for an employee to be off on one or more days in a work cycle, sick leave will not be payable where the employee is sick on such day or days off.

7.2.3 Sick leave debits

Sick leave debits will be equivalent to the ordinary hours employees would have worked had they not been on paid leave. Such leave will therefore be paid and debited on the basis of hours actually taken.

7.2.4 Sick leave accumulation

Sick leave will be cumulative, but unless the Employer and employee otherwise agree, no employee will be entitled to receive, and no Employer will be bound to make, payment for more than 494 hours absence from work through illness in any one year.

7.2.5 Sick leave when service is broken

The continuity of employment of an employee with an Employer for sick leave accumulation purposes will not be broken by any of the following:

- (a) Absence from work on leave granted by the Employer.
- (b) The employee having been dismissed or stood down by the Employer, or the employee terminating their employment with the Employer, for any period not exceeding 3 months and the employee is re-employed by the same Employer.

7.2.6 The period during which the employment of the employee with the Employer will have been interrupted or determined in any of the circumstances mentioned in clause 7.2.5 will not be taken into account in calculating the period of employment of the employee with the Employer.

7.2.7 Notification and proof of sickness

The payment of sick leave is subject to the employee promptly advising their Employer of their absence and its expected duration.

7.2.8 An employee is required to produce a certificate from a duly qualified medical practitioner specifying the nature of the employee's illness and the period or approximate period during which the employee will be unable to work, or other evidence of illness to the satisfaction of the Employer. An Employer may accept a dental certificate in lieu of a medical certificate.

7.2.9 An Employer may dispense with the medical certificate where the absence does not exceed 2 consecutive working days.

7.3 Bereavement leave

7.3.1 An employee (other than a casual) on the death of a member of their immediate family or household in Australia is entitled to paid bereavement leave up to and including the day of the funeral of such person. Such leave will be without deduction of pay for a period not exceeding the number of hours worked by the employee in 2 ordinary days of work. Proof of such death is to be furnished by the employee to the satisfaction of the Employer.

7.3.2 Long-term casual employees

(a) A long-term Casual employee is entitled to at least 2 days unpaid bereavement leave on the death of a member of the person's immediate family or household.

7.4.3 Employees engaged as at 1 January 1999 will accrue an entitlement to long service leave after the completion of 10 years continuous service calculated from the date they commenced continuous employment at the Agricultural College.

7.4.4 An employee engaged after 1 January 1999 will not be entitled to long service leave until the employee has completed 10 years continuous service at the Agricultural College.
