- (i) Subject to legislation, while the grievance procedure is being followed normal work is to continue except in the case of a genuine safety issue. The status quo existing before the emergence of a grievance or dispute is to continue while the procedure is being followed. 8.3 Casual employment - staff members

- (a) (i) A casual staff member is an employee who is engaged and paid as such.
- (ii) A casual staff member cannot be employed to work more ordinary hours than are worked by an equivalent full-time employee each week or fortnight, as the case may be.
- (b) A casual staff member is entitled to receive, on a pro rata basis, the same pay and conditions of employment, other than leave entitlements, to those of an equivalent full-time employee who performs the same kind of work.
- (c) For each ordinary hour worked a casual staff member shall be paid no less than 1/76th of the minimum fortnightly rate of pay for their classification plus a casual loading of 23%.
- (d) The casual loading of 23% is paid instead of annual leave, paid personal/carer's leave, notice of termination, redundancy benefits and the other attributes of full-time or part-time/flexible hours employment. The loading constitutes part of the casual staff member's salary for the purpose of calculating overtime, weekend penalties, public holiday and shift payments, where relevant.
- (e) Each casual engagement stands alone with a minimum payment as for 2 hours' work to be made in respect to each engagement.
- (f) Casual staff members are eligible for payment of salary increments in accordance with the provisions of clause 12.10(a)(iv).
- (g) The long service leave entitlement of casual staff members is recorded in clause 23.

8.4 Probationary employment - staff members

- (a) Except where QPS and a staff member agree to a different period or no period of probation prior to the commencement of employment, the engagement of a full-time or part-time/flexible hours staff member will in the first instance be subject to a probationary period of three months duration. If a period of probation of longer than three months is agreed, it must:
 - (i) be agreed in writing; and
 - (ii) be a reasonable period having regard to the nature and circumstances of the employment.
- (b) QPS may terminate the employment of an employee who is on probation at any time during the probationary period.
- (c) Where a staff member's service is considered satisfactory or where a staff member's service exceeds the designated probationary period or agreed extension, the staff member's appointment will be deemed to be confirmed.

8.5 Recognition of previous service - staff members

A staff member may seek to have their previous service recognised for the purposes of calculating any sick leave accumulation, long service leave entitlement and paid parental leave.

Note: Where a directive about recognition of previous service and employment covers a staff member, the provisions of the directive apply to the staff member.

8.6 Anti-discrimination

- (a) In fulfilling their obligations under this Award, the parties must take reasonable steps to ensure that neither the Award provisions nor their operation are directly or indirectly discriminatory in their effects. Discrimination includes:
- (i) discrimination on the basis of sex, relationship status, family responsibilities, pregnancy, parental status, breastfeeding, age, race, impairment, religious belief or religious activity, political belief or activity, trade union activity, lawful sexual activity, gender identity, sexuality and association with, or in relation to, a person identified on the basis of any of the above attributes;

- (a) Unless otherwise agreed between QPS and a staff member the notice of termination required by a staff member, other than a casual staff member, will be two weeks or two weeks' salary forfeited in lieu.
- (b) If a staff member fails to give the required notice QPS will have the right to withhold monies due to the staff member with a maximum amount equal to the ordinary time rate of salary for the period of notice not provided.

9.3 Notice cannot be offset

In the absence of mutual agreement between QPS and the staff member, annual leave or any part thereof cannot be considered as or nominated as notice for the purpose of giving notice of termination of employment.

9.4 Job search entitlement

Where QPS has given notice of termination to a staff member for reasons other than redundancy, the staff member must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. The time off is to be taken at times that are convenient to the staff member after consultation with QPS.

9.5 Statement of employment

QPS shall, in the event of termination of employment, provide upon request to the staff member who has been terminated a written statement specifying the period of employment and the classification or type of work performed by the staff member.

10. Redundancy - staff members

10.1 Redundancy pay

Redundancy pay is provided for in Division 13 of the QES. Clauses 10.2 to 10.9 supplement the QES provisions.

Note: Where a directive about redundancy and retrenchment covers a staff member, the provisions of the directive apply to the staff member to the extent it provides a more generous entitlement.

10.2 Consultation before termination

- (a) Where QPS decides that QPS no longer wishes the job a staff member/s has been doing to be done by anyone, and this is not due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour, and that decision may lead to termination of employment, QPS shall consult the staff member/s directly affected and, where relevant, their union/s.
- (b) The consultation shall take place as soon as it is practicable after QPS has made a decision which will invoke the provisions of clause 10.2(a) and shall cover the reasons for the proposed terminations and measures to avoid or minimise the terminations and/or their adverse effects on the employee/s concerned.
- (c) For the purpose of the consultation QPS shall, as soon as practicable, provide in writing to the staff member/s concerned and, where relevant, their union/s, all relevant information about the proposed terminations including the reasons for the proposed terminations, the number and categories of staff members likely to be affected, the number of staff members normally employed and the period over which the terminations are likely to be carried out.
- (d) Notwithstanding the provision of clause 10.2(c), QPS shall not be required to disclose confidential information, the disclosure of which would be adverse to its interests.

10.3 Transfer to lower paid duties

- (a) Where a staff member is transferred to lower paid duties by reason of redundancy the staff member shall be entitled to the same period of notice of transfer as the staff member would have been entitled to if the staff member's employment had been terminated under the redundancy pay provisions of the QES.
- (b) QPS may, at its option, make payment in lieu thereof of an amount equal to the difference between the former amounts it would have been liable to pay and the new lower amount it is liable to pay the staff member for the number of weeks of notice still owing.
- (c) The amounts must be worked out on the basis of:

- (i) the ordinary working hours to be worked by the staff member; and
- (ii) the amounts payable to the staff member for the hours including, for example, allowances, loadings and penalties; and
- (iii) any other amounts payable under the staff member's employment contract.

10.4 Staff member leaving during notice period

A staff member given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate their employment during the period of notice. The staff member is entitled to receive the benefits and payments they would have received under this clause had they remained in employment until the expiry of the notice, but is not entitled to payment instead of notice.

10.5 Job search entitlement

- (a) A staff member given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.
- (b) If the staff member has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment the staff member must, at the request of QPS, produce proof of attendance at an interview or the staff member will not receive payment for the time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration will be sufficient.
- (c) Clause 10.5 applies instead of clause 9.4 in cases of redundancy.

10.6 Transmission of business

- (a) Where a business is, whether before or after the date of commencement of this Award, transmitted from QPS (transmittor) to another employer (transmittee) and a staff member who at the time of such transmission was an employee of QPS becomes an employee of the transmittee:
 - (i) the continuity of the employment of the employee shall be deemed not to have been broken by reason of such transmission; and
 - (ii) the period of employment which the employee has had with QPS or any prior transmittor shall be deemed to be service of the employee with the transmittee.
- (b) In clauses 10.6 and 10.7, 'business' includes trade, process, business or occupation and includes a part or subsidiary (which means a corporation that would be taken to be a subsidiary under the Corporations Law, whether or not the Corporations Law applies in the particular case) of any such business and 'transmission' includes transfer, conveyance, assignment or succession whether by agreement or by operation of law and 'transmitted' has a corresponding meaning.

10.7 Exemption where transmission of business

Whilst there is some scope for the exercising of initiative in the application of established work practices and procedures, problems can generally be solved by reference to documented methods and instructions.

Duties and skills

Work at this level requires a sound knowledge of the agency's functions and the requirements of the discipline.

A sound knowledge of the operating procedures is required.

Supervisory responsibilities may include co-ordination of work-flow processes, training of subordinate staff, responsibility of quality of output of the workgroup, staff assessment and performance counselling in relation to subordinates.

High levels of autonomy and initiative may be required to be exhibited in accomplishing objectives and undertaking projects.

Management of large work groups may be a factor.

Characteristics of the work

Employees at this level are subject to limited direction and may exercise managerial responsibility for a large and complex work program.

Usually only broad guidance and advice is provided as to operational requirements and deadlines to achieve end results in line with operating goals.

Duties and skills

Duties may involve detailed planning, directing, co-ordinating or financial control within budget, material and workforce limitations established by management and the implementation of overall agency policies.

Managerial responsibility includes training of subordinate staff, co-ordination of workflow processes, responsibility for quality of output of the work unit, performance assessment and review, staff counselling, career planning and development, application of equal employment opportunity principles as well as implementing occupational health and safety guidelines and principles.

Operational officer levels 6 and 7 (OO6 & OO7)

Work level description
