1.2 Title

This Agreement is to be known as the Stadiums Queensland Staff Certified Agreement 2012.

1.3 Certified Agreement Coverage

This Agreement shall apply to Stadiums Queensland (the "employer"), all employees employed by the employer; with the exception of staff on individual contracts and event day casuals; and the Together Queensland Industrial Union of Employees and the United Voice Industrial Union of Employees Queensland.

1.4 Date of Operation

This Agreement is to operate from the date of certification by the Queensland Industrial Relations Commission and have a nominal expiry date of 30 June 2015.

The parties agree to commence negotiations for a new Certified Agreement no later than six (6) months prior to the expiry of this Agreement. The objective of the parties is to reach a mutually beneficial Agreement to be implemented as soon as practical, after this Agreement expires.

1.5 Posting up of Agreement

A copy of this Certified Agreement is to be exhibited in a conspicuous and convenient place on the premises of the employer so as to be easily read by employees. Electronic access to this Agreement, where available, is sufficient to meet the requirements of this clause.

1.6 Objectives of this Agreement

1.6.1 Stadiums Queensland is charged with the management, operation, use and promotion, of the major sports facilities declared under Queensland Government regulation as being venues having the capacity to stage national and international sports events, to deliver recreation and entertainment experiences and perform its function in a way that is consistent with sound commercial principles.

1.6.2 The objective of this Agreement is to develop a standard approach to employment for all staff as far as possible but also to ensure the terms and conditions of employment reflect the particular circumstances of the business within which the facilities operate.

The parties will strive for improvements in service delivery and improved efficiency and effectiveness of the employer's operations and activities.

1.7 Replacement Agreement

This Agreement replaces the following certified agreements when this Agreement is certified:

- Major Sports Facilities Authority – General Staff Certified Agreement 2003; and
- Major Sports Facilities Authority – Trades, Grounds and Maintenance Staff Certified Agreement 2004.

1.8 Equity Matters

- 1.8.1 This Agreement will achieve the principal objectives specified in sections 3(c), 3(d) and 3(n) of the Industrial Relations Act 1999. Stadiums Queensland will respect and value the diversity of our employees through helping to prevent and eliminate discrimination.
- 1.8.2 In addition, the effect of the Agreement is not to allow any conduct or treatment, either direct or indirect that would contravene the Queensland Anti-Discrimination Act 1991.

1.9 No Further Claims

- 1.9.1 This Agreement is in full and final settlement of all parties' claims for the period of its nominal term. It is a term of this Agreement that no party will pursue any extra claims relating to wages or conditions of employment, whether dealt with in this Agreement or not, which claims are intended to take effect during the nominal term of this Agreement.
- 1.9.2 Notwithstanding clause 1.9.1 the parties acknowledge that a range of issues are contained in policies developed by the employer, and the employer retains the right under this Agreement to change any such policy as required from time to time, but not so as to remove or reduce any express term or condition of employment contained in this Agreement in a way that is detrimental to employees.
- 1.9.3 In the event that any changes to a policy as outlined in clause 1.9.2 are decided upon, the employer will advise employees and their representatives of the changes prior to developing or implementing the change, whichever is the first in time.
- 1.9.4 Any dispute as to whether a change in policy is in compliance with clause 1.9.2 shall be dealt with in accordance with the procedure outlined in clause 2.8 of this Agreement, save and except that it is expressly agreed that any disputed change to policy may be implemented by the employer pending the determination of such dispute, but must be subsequently dealt with in accordance with any such dispute determination.

Provided that the notice period shall be increased by one week in the case of an employee who is over 45 years of age and has completed at least two (2) years continuous service.

Payment in lieu of notice prescribed above will be made if the appropriate notice period is not given. Provided that employment may be terminated by part of the period of notice specified and part payment in lieu thereof.

The notice of termination required to be given by the employee shall be the same as that required of the employer except that there shall be no additional notice based on the age of the employee.

2.1.7 The employer will review the employment status of any casual employee who has made an application in writing to the employer and who has worked the equivalent of 12 months full-time to ascertain whether it would be appropriate to offer such an employee a full-time or part-time position. Provided that the employer's operational requirements take precedence.

2.2.1 The employer may offer to employees with roles which are substantially managerial in nature, or which require specialist knowledge or strong leadership skills, employment under an alternative employment arrangement. Such employment offer may be made to a potential or existing employee. However, this provision shall not apply unless employees have been offered and have accepted alternative employment arrangements in accordance with this clause.

2.2.2 Any such arrangements must be made on an individual basis and shall not automatically be extended to a new or continuing employee subsequently appointed to the position.

2.2.3 Every alternative employment arrangement introduced under these provisions, will be subject to the "no disadvantage test". That is that the arrangement must not disadvantage employees in relation to their agreement employment conditions.

2.2.4 An alternative employment arrangement shall only be introduced following consultation and endorsement by those employees covered by the arrangement. Note: This clause (clause 2.3) has been modified as a result of the enactment of the Public Service and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2012, which is set out in the new part 2 chapter 5 of the Industrial Relations Act 1999.

2.3.1 Notification of Intended Changes

- (a) Where the employer has made a definite decision to implement changes in organisation, structure or that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the employer shall as soon as practicable notify the employees and the relevant union(s) who may be affected by the proposed changes.
- (b) "Significant effects" include major changes in the composition, operation or size of the employer's work-force or in the skills required; the elimination or diminution of job opportunities; promotion opportunities or job tenure; the alteration of hours of work outside of ordinary seasonal changes; the need for retraining or transfer of employees to other work or locations and the restructuring of jobs. Provided that where this Agreement makes provision for alteration of any of the matters referred to in this paragraph, an alteration shall be deemed not to have significant effect.

2.3.2 Consultation with Employees

- (a) The employer shall discuss with the employees affected, among other things, the introduction of the changes referred to in sub-clause 2.3.1(a) hereof, the effects the changes are likely to have on employees, measures to avert or mitigate the adverse effects of such changes on employees and shall give prompt consideration to matters raised by the employees in relation to the changes.
- (b) The discussions shall commence as early as practicable after a definite decision has been made by the employer to make the changes referred to in sub-clause 2.3.1(a) hereof.
- (c) For the purposes of such discussion, the employer shall provide in writing to the employees concerned, all relevant information about the changes including the nature of the changes proposed, the expected effects of the changes on employees and any other matters likely to affect employees provided that the employer shall not be required to disclose confidential information the disclosure of which would be inimical to the employer's interests.

2.4 Redundancy

2.4.1 "Redundancy" in this clause means the loss of employment due to the employer no longer requiring the job the employee has been doing to be performed by anyone.

2.4.2 Discussions before Redundancy

Where an employer has made a definite decision that the employer no longer requires the job the employee(s) have been doing done by anyone and this is not due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour and where that decision may lead to termination of employment, the employer shall have discussions as soon as practicable with the employees directly affected. Discussions shall cover, among other things, any reasons for the proposed terminations, measures to avoid or minimise the terminations, and measures to mitigate the adverse effects of any termination on the employees concerned.

2.4.3 Notification to Centrelink

Where a decision has been made to terminate the employment of an employee or of employees on account of redundancy the employer shall notify Centrelink thereof as soon as possible giving relevant information including the number and categories of the employees likely to be affected, and the period over which the termination(s) are intended to be carried out.

2.4.4 Severance Pay

- (a) In addition to the periods of notice prescribed for termination in clause 2.1, an employee whose employment is terminated by reason of redundancy shall be entitled to a severance benefit of two weeks' pay per year of service and a proportionate amount for an incomplete year of eligible service, paid at the employee's actual wage. The minimum benefit is based on wages for four weeks; the maximum is based on wages over a 52 week period.
- (b) "Weeks' pay" means the ordinary time rate of pay for the employee concerned.
- (c) The severance payment shall not exceed the amount which the employee would have earned if employment with the employer had proceeded to the employee's normal retirement date.
- (d) The employer may apply to the Queensland Industrial Relations Commission for an order allowing the off-setting of all or part of an employee's entitlement to severance payment on the basis that such payment or part thereof is already provided for or included in the contributions which the employer has made to a superannuation scheme and which are paid or payable to the employee on redundancy occurring.

2.4.5 Time Off During Notice Period

- (a) During the period of notice of termination on account of redundancy given by the employer, an employee shall be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.
- (b) If the employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee shall, at the request of the employer, be required to produce proof of attendance at an interview or he or she shall not receive payment for the time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration will be sufficient.

2.4.6 Alternative Employment

The employer in a particular redundancy case may make application to the Queensland Industrial Relations Commission to have the severance pay prescription varied if the employer obtains acceptable alternative employment for an employee.

2.4.7 Employee Leaving During Notice

An employee whose employment is terminated on account of redundancy may terminate his or her employment during the period of notice, and if so shall be entitled to the same benefits and payments under this clause as if the employee remained with the employer until the expiry of such notice. However, in such circumstances the employee shall not be entitled to payment in lieu of notice.

2.4.8 Transfer to Lower Paid Duties

Where an employee is transferred to lower paid duties for reasons set out in paragraph 2.3.1(b) hereof, the employee shall be entitled to the same period of notice of the date of commencement of work in the new position as if the employee's employment had been terminated, and the employer may at the employer's option, make payment in lieu thereof of an amount equal to the difference between the former ordinary time rate of pay and the new lower ordinary time rate for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

2.4.9 Employees with Less than One Year of Service

This clause shall not apply to employees with less than one year's continuous service and the general obligation on the employer should be no more than to give relevant employees an indication of the impending redundancy at the first reasonable opportunity, and to take such steps as may be reasonable to facilitate the obtaining by the employees of suitable alternative employment.

2.4.10 Transmission of Business

Where a business is, whether before or after the date of this Agreement, transmitted from an employer (in this clause called the "transmittor") to another employer (in this clause called the "transmittee"), and an employee who at the time of such transmission was an employee of the transmittor's business, becomes an employee of the transmittee:

- (a) The continuity of the employment of the employee shall be deemed not to have been broken by reason of such transmission; and
- (b) The period of employment which the employee has had with the transmittor or any prior transmittor shall be deemed to be service of the employee with the transmittee.
- (c) In this subclause, "business" includes trade, process, business or occupation and includes part of any such business and "transmission" agreement or by operation of law and "transmitted" has a corresponding meaning.

2.4.11 Employees Exempted

This clause shall not apply where employment is terminated, in the case of temporary/casual employees or employees engaged for a specified period of time or for a specified task or tasks, upon expiration of that time or upon completion of the specified task or tasks or as a consequence of conduct that justifies summary dismissal including malingering, inefficiency (as defined in Stadiums Queensland's policies) or neglect of duty.

2.5 Payment of Wages

- 2.5.1 All employees shall be paid fortnightly and directly into the employee's nominated bank account by electronic transfer of funds and where practicable not later than five (5) working days after the last day of a pay period.
- 2.5.2 In order to minimise the potential impact on employees, any changes to payment of wages will be done so as to coincide with any back payment.
- 2.5.3 The employer shall supply the employee with a detailed wages payment advice in accordance with the provisions of the Industrial Relations Act 1999.

2.6 Deductions from Wages

The employer may at the request in writing from a full-time or part-time employee, deduct out of any moneys due to the employee in respect of wages, the employee's contribution to a fund of the employee's choice.

2.7 Training, Development and Careers

- 2.7.1 The parties to this Agreement recognise that in order to increase the efficiency and productivity of the employer, a commitment to training and skill development is required. Accordingly, the employer commits itself to:
 - (a) developing a more highly skilled and flexible workforce; and
 - (b) providing employees with career opportunities with the employer through appropriate training to acquire additional skills.
- 2.7.2 When a training program is deemed by the employer or relevant legislation to be compulsory, then the employer will provide this training to full-time and part-time employees in paid time. Provided that full-time and part-time employees will be entitled to a minimum of two (2) hours payment for attendance at training.

2.7.3 This training will also be provided by the employer free of charge to employees if it is a requirement of their position.

2.8 Prevention and settlement of disputes

2.8.1 The parties agree at all times to abide by the procedure outlined in subclause 2.8.2 below and work will continue without any industrial action while the parties seek resolution of a dispute, claim or grievance.

2.8.2 In the event of a dispute, claim or grievance likely to affect the business of the employer, the continuity of service or the employment of the employee, the following procedures shall be constituted:

- (a) In order to allow for the peaceful resolution of the dispute, claim or grievance the parties are not to participate in or be responsible for stoppages of work, lockouts or any other bans or limitations on the performance of work while the procedures of negotiation and conciliation as detailed herein are being followed.
- (b) In the first instance, the employee will raise the dispute, claim or grievance with his/her immediate supervisor.
- (c) If the matter remains unresolved, the union representative or a nominated employee representative will discuss the dispute, claim or grievance with the staff member responsible for industrial relations. If after 48 hours (or such longer period where appropriate) the matter remains unresolved then it will be brought to the attention of the manager.
- (d) The union representative may consult with an official of the union at any time during this procedure. This official may seek to discuss the matter with an appropriate representative of the employer.
- (e) The employer shall ensure that all practices applied during operation of the procedure are in accordance with safe working practices and are consistent with established custom and practice at the workplace.
- (f) Emphasis shall be placed by the parties on a negotiated settlement. However, if the negotiation process is exhausted without the dispute, claim or grievance being resolved, the parties may jointly or individually refer the matter to the Queensland Industrial Relations Commission for assistance in resolving the dispute. The parties agree that if the matter cannot be resolved by conciliation they agree to have the matter arbitrated.
- (g) Nothing in this clause shall diminish the rights, obligations and powers of the parties arising from the relevant Workplace Health and Safety legislation.
- (h) The parties to this Agreement agree to refer to the Queensland Industrial Relations Commission matters relating to dismissal, re-employment and re-instatement where these cannot be resolved pursuant to this clause.
- (i) Employees who are not members of the union will be required to follow the same procedures as set out above and will be entitled to seek assistance and representation from a fellow employee or advocate.
