1.9. NEGOTIATION TEAM

A negotiating team has been established for the purpose of negotiating an Agreement, in accordance with the Act. This team is formed upon commencement of any round of negotiations until negotiations for that certified agreement conclude.

The negotiating team comprises management representatives, nominated employee union delegates from each Union and the Union Organisers party to the Agreement. Nominated reserve representatives for each employee union delegate are recommended.

Any negotiating team appointed ahead of the expiry of this Agreement shall hold discussions in relation to the renegotiation of a new Agreement six (6) months prior to the expiration of this Agreement. In its renegotiation the parties agree to negotiate collectively in respect of all its employees and their nominated representatives for the purposes of making a new Agreement.

The responsibility for the implementation of this Agreement rests with the Chief Executive Officer and Executive Management Team.

1.10. NEW AGREEMENT TRAINING

To ensure the management, supervisory staff and other relevant employees understand the intent and application of the Agreement, an education program relating to this Agreement and the parent Awards shall be facilitated through training of the above mentioned staff through JCC Meetings and Tool Box Meetings or any other form of training required, as determined by the CEO, following certification of the Agreement by the QIRC.

2. PART TWO CONSULTATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

2.1. JOINT CONSULTATIVE COMMITTEE

The purpose of Council's Joint Consultative Committee (JCC) is to enable a consultative forum comprising of management representatives and employee union delegates and where relevant, their Union or Unions to consult on broad matters arising from the Agreement which impact large numbers of employees or a large number of employees of a particular work group. Management will be responsible for regular review of Human Resources Policies, with consultation with Union representatives on substantial changes to the Policies occurring via the JCC. High level quarterly workplace statistics such as permanent, fixed term and contract employee numbers, age profile etc, will also be shared by Management at the JCC.

The JCC should meet at least quarterly, or by request, and meetings will be held during paid working time. As soon as practicable after the commencement of this Agreement, the JCC is to form and decide how it will operate within the parameters of this clause.

Management representatives will be determined by the Chief Executive Officer but shall usually include the Human Resources (HR) Coordinator to oversee and provide advice. Employee union delegates will be members of JCC who will select their representatives, and these should as far as possible, reflect union membership party to the Agreement. Any other matters are to be referred to the dispute resolution process as appropriate.

All employees have the opportunity to raise an issue arising out of the Agreement through any committee representative. Employees are encouraged in the first instance to discuss any concerns with their direct Supervisor or Manager where possible.

'Consultation' for the purpose of this clause shall mean a reasonable opportunity for employee delegates to provide feedback and input into a proposal before a final decision is made, and for Council to consider such feedback and to accommodate suggestions where appropriate. This will include review of Human Resource Policies that impact on employees. Consultation does not require mutual agreement on the employer's course of action.

The Notification of Change Clause may be invoked separately to the JCC; for example, in the case of potential redundancies where matters will be discussed with affected persons.

2.2. GRIEVANCE AND DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

Effective communication between employees and management is a pre-requisite to good industrial relations and the following procedure is set down in order that any grievances or disputes may be resolved quickly to maintain effective and sound working relationships.

Level 1

The matter is to be discussed by the employee's union representative and/or the employee/s concerned (where appropriate) and the immediate supervisor in the first instance. If the complainant is unable to discuss the grievance with their Supervisor/Manager because they are implicated in the grievance, the complainant may commence the procedure at Level 2. The discussion should take place within 24 hours and the procedure should not extend beyond 7 days.

Level 2

If the matter is not resolved at Level 1 it shall be referred by the union representative and/or the employee/s to the appropriate management representative, which may include Human Resources, who shall arrange a conference of the relevant parties to discuss the matter. This process should not extend beyond 7 days.

Level 3

If the matter is not resolved at Level 2, it may be referred to the CEO for discussion and appropriate action. This process should not exceed 14 days.

Level 4

If the matter is not resolved at Level 3, then it may be referred by either party to the QIRC.

Where the grievance involves allegations of sexual harassment an employee should commence the procedure at Level 3.

2.2.1. CONTINUATION OF WORK WHILE GRIEVANCE/DISPUTE IS BEING PROCESSED

Despite any grievance or dispute in relation to the operation of this Agreement, normal work will continue, except where there is a genuine risk to health and/or safety. Whilst the dispute procedure is being followed, the continuation of work and customary work practices (status quo) shall prevail until such time as a settlement is reached. No party shall be prejudiced as to the final settlement by the continuation of work.

An employee must comply with any reasonable directive given by her/his Manager to perform alternative work, either at the same or another workplace. Work must be appropriate for the employee to perform. Queensland Workplace Health and Safety laws shall apply.

At any time through the process, an employee can engage their union or chosen representative to represent them.

2.3. JOB SECURITY/CONSULTATION AND REDUNDANCY

2.3.1. EMPLOYMENT SECURITY

The Council is committed to security of employment for current permanent and permanent part-time employees and is committed to continually improving the job security of employees by:

- a) Training and educating employees and providing retraining;
- b) Career development and equal opportunity;
- c) Using natural attrition and relocation within the workplace, after consultation, is preferred to retrenchment or redundancy;
- d) The Council continuing to manage its workforce in order to minimise the need for involuntary labour reductions in the future and ensuring that the use of contractors and sub-contractors does not threaten established staff levels.

Where job viability is affected and redeployment and retraining options have been exhausted, any termination of employment which may be necessitated as a result of changes in work practices shall be achieved in accordance with all relevant Award provisions and this Agreement.

Nothing in this clause shall override provisions of Council's disciplinary policies and procedures, nor the rights and obligations of Council and employees under relevant parent Awards and legislation relating to disciplinary matters.

2.3.2. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

The parties recognise the importance of maintaining diversity in the workplace, equal remuneration for work of equal value and ensuring that existing practices, that encourage equality of employment and development opportunities, continue and are promoted, during the life of this Agreement. This will include:

- a) Reviewing position descriptions, prior to advertisement, to ensure non-bias/gender neutral language;
- b) Inclusion of statements during recruitment that Council is an equal opportunity employer;
- c) Ensuring selection of applicants for vacant positions is conducted in accordance with the law;
- d) Giving appropriate and meaningful consideration of workplace flexibility or adjustment requests;
- e) Ensuring approval of development opportunities is managed in a fair and equitable manner, irrespective of gender or any other identified attribute under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991.

The Council is committed to equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value.

2.3.3. MULTI SKILLING

It is agreed that parties to this Agreement are committed to multi-skilling in order to:

- a) Provide greater job satisfaction and possible access to a wider range of jobs for employees
- b) Provide opportunity for greater efficiencies in a flexible work environment by widening the breadth of employee's skills.

2.3.4. CONSULTATION PROCESS NOTIFICATION OF CHANGE

Before making a definite decision to introduce major changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology that are likely to have significant effects on employees, Council shall notify the employees who may be affected by the proposed changes and the relevant Unions.

"Significant effects" include termination of employment, major changes in the composition, operation or size of Councils' workforce or in the skills required; the elimination or diminishing of job opportunities, promotion opportunities or job tenure; the alteration of hours of work; the need for retraining or transfer of employees to other work or locations and the restructuring of jobs. Provided that where the Award or Certified Agreement makes provision for alteration of any of the matters referred to herein an alteration shall be deemed not to have significant effect.

Council shall discuss with the employees affected, and where relevant their Union or Unions, any proposed introduction of the changes, the effects the changes are likely to have on affected employees, reasonable and practicable measures to avoid or minimise the adverse effects of such changes on employees.

For the purposes of such discussion, Council shall provide in writing to the employees concerned and, where relevant, their Union or Unions who are a party to Council's Certified Agreement, all relevant information about the changes including the nature of the changes proposed; the expected effects of the changes on employees and any other matters likely to have a significant effect on employees provided that Council shall not be required to disclose confidential information, the disclosure of which would be detrimental to Council's interests.

In the case of potential redundancies, this clause must be read in conjunction with clause 8.4 -Redundancies.

2.3.5. CONTRACTING OUT

Council will continue to use its own employees where competitive levels of quality, service, efficiency, cost effectiveness and value for money are demonstrated. Council prefers to use its own capable, competent, and committed employees to provide services which satisfy the needs of customers and provide value for money. Council will directly engage employees on a permanent full time, part time and/or casual basis and will continue to develop and maintain critical skills within the organisation. Employees are committed to improving work practices and ensuring our competitiveness. Working together, we will encourage and support internal providers to develop and maintain commercially viable and competitive services.

The impact on sustainable employment of existing employees will be considered when exploring any proposal to use external providers to deliver services which are currently provided by Council employees.

Council reserves the right to contract out or to lease out current services in the following circumstances:

- Where funding from State or Commonwealth governments, such as for construction, reconstruction, or natural disaster recovery, is conditional and cannot be applied to normal work by permanent employees;
- In the event of shortages of skilled staff and resources;
- The lack of available infrastructure capital and the cost of providing technology;
- Any extraordinary or unforeseen circumstances; or
- That it is in the public interest that such services should be contracted out.

Where Council seeks to make a strategic decision in relation to contracting out (of an entire function or specific work functions) the relevant unions will be formally advised in writing and consulted as early as possible. The need to consult does not apply where Council is supplementing service delivery by engaging additional contractors of works and services. As part of the consultation process, information will be provided supporting Council's decision. It is the responsibility of all parties to participate fully in discussions on any proposals to outsource any of Council's functions.

The employer will provide to the relevant Unions the following information in writing;

- Information outlining why the service cannot continue to be delivered by Council
- How the proposed initiative will improve Council service delivery
- Communication strategy to manage the impact on Council existing workforce including transition plans for deployment, redeployment, and training

If, after consultation as outlined above, employees are affected by the necessity to outsource any functions currently performed by the employer's permanent employees, Council will follow the Notification of Change procedure outlined in this document.

If a service is already outsourced by contract at the time of signing of this Agreement, then that service will not be affected by this clause for the life of that contract.

3. PART THREE EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP AND RELATED ARRANGEMENTS

3.1. EMPLOYMENT CATEGORIES

Council shall engage a person as an employee on terms that correspond with a type of employment prescribed within this clause and in accordance with the relevant Awards. The types of employment defined under Part 3.3 are a summary of Award provisions which do not vary the underlying Awards.

3.2. PROBATION

Employment of new employees (except for casuals) is subject to satisfactory completion of probation. It is Council's aim that Managers review performance during probation on an ongoing basis and one documented review is to be held between the employee and the Supervisor in the final week of probation to determine whether the employee's employment is confirmed. Council also expects the employee to seek feedback on their performance during probation, if they need it.

The probationary period is three (3) months. This may be extended up to an additional three (3) months under exceptional circumstances, where there is a need to continue to assess the employee's suitability in the position.

Where an employee is absent from work on permitted leave without pay or extended personal leave the employer shall retain the option of extending the employees probationary period for that amount of leave taken. For the purpose of this clause 'extended personal leave' shall mean personal leave taken in excess of ten (10) working days.

As a condition incidental to employment on probation, an employee shall be advised of, and given an opportunity to make response to, any adverse material about the employee which the employer intends to take into account in a decision to terminate the employment upon or before the expiry of the probationary period.

Maximum term contracts of six (6) months or longer will attract a probation period of three (3) months.

For those employed on a traineeship arrangement, the duration of probationary period will apply as per the traineeship training contract.

To avoid doubt, probation does not apply to existing employees appointed to another position or extension of contract within Council where probation has already been served; however, any unserved balance of probation may be applied.

3.3. TYPES OF EMPLOYMENT

3.3.1.FULLTIME

Full-time employment means employment which requires the employee to work thirty six and a quarter (36.25) hours per week for employees under Stream A. Fulltime employment does not include part time/job share, casual or fixed term employment as defined by this Agreement. Supervisors under Stream A work 38hrs as referred to in Clause 4.5.

3.3.2.PART TIME

A part time employee is one who is engaged to work a regular pattern of ordinary hours each week or fortnight that are less than the ordinary hours worked by an equivalent fulltime employee as required by the relevant parent award.

It is agreed that the awards are varied to the extent that by mutual agreement in writing, part time Officers shall be allowed to work for six (6) consecutive hours provided that if they are required to work beyond six (6) hours, a crib break of thirty (30) minutes, which shall not be counted as time worked, shall be taken at the commencement of the sixth hour. Penalty rates will apply if the employee exceeds the 36.25hrs (Stream A).

3.3.3.CASUAL

A casual employee is as defined by the relevant Award Streams. A casual employee is engaged by the hour (subject to minimum call out periods) with employment that is subject to termination at any time without notice subject to payment of any applicable minimum engagement period.

Key features of casual employment are:

- Casual weekly hours are less than the maximum ordinary working hours applicable to full time employees
- Casual employees are paid a casual loading per hour in lieu of leave entitlements
- Minimum periods of engagement apply as per the relevant Award Streams
- It is stipulated at the commencement of the engagement that the employment is casual
- In the rare event a casual achieves long service entitlement, they are entitled to it
- Long term casuals are entitled to some forms of unpaid leave, as specified in the relevant Awards.

It is agreed that upon certification of this agreement, that once employed, an employee and their Supervisor/Manager may mutually agree in writing for a period of time or permanently that a casual employee may work up to a maximum of 7.25 hours per day (Stream A employees), these hours will be treated as ordinary hours with no penalties applicable. Penalty rates will apply if the employee exceeds the 36.25hrs (Stream A).

For each ordinary hour worked a casual employee shall be paid no less than 1/36.25th of the minimum weekly rate of pay for their classification plus a casual loading as follows:

Stream A

For all ordinary time worked between	Casual loading on hourly rate
0600 and 1800, Monday to Friday	25%
1800 and 2130, Monday to Friday	31%
0600 and 1200, Saturday	31%

3.3.4.CASUAL CONVERSION

Casual employees who have been employed for consistent hours for a period in excess of six (6) months for Stream A will be provided with the opportunity to apply for appointment on a permanent basis. In considering these applications, the Council will not unreasonably refuse, providing:

- a) management believes a continuing need for the role exists; and
- b) the agreed scheduled hours are at ordinary time.

3.3.5.MIXED CONTRACTS OF EMPLOYMENT

It is agreed that in addition to the provisions of their primary contracts of employment, part time or casual employees may be engaged on a secondary contract either on a casual or part time basis in a separate engagement in a different Department of Council. Such engagement shall be subject to the following conditions:

- a) That both Managers are mutually agreeable to the arrangement and Council cannot foresee any conflict of interest in duties or workplace health and safety issues (e.g. working hours).
- b) That work required to be performed in a separate engagement is not within the primary contract of employment position/job description of the employee concerned and it is treated and paid according to the relevant contract.
- c) The total ordinary hours worked across both contracts will not exceed the full time equivalent hours.
- d) Under each contract where ordinary hours are exceeded, the relevant Award penalties apply.
- e) The separate engagement is to meet a specific purpose.
- f) The separate engagement enables the employee to attain additional remuneration and/or skills.
- g) The separate engagement must be at the request of the employee and be subject to mutual agreement between Council and the employee concerned.
- h) The separate engagement is not designed to avoid overtime obligations, but genuinely meets the tests set out in items (b) to (e) above.
- i) Any decision must be based on reasonable operating requirements of Council.

In considering a request from an employee who has previously had their hours reduced due to a right to request relating to returning to work on a part time basis until their child reaches school age, Council must take this into consideration as to whether the arrangement still applies and whether the additional work should reasonably be performed in their current department.

3.3.6. MAXIMUM TERM EMPLOYMENT

Maximum Term employment means employment for a specified period of time or for a specified task. Maximum term appointments may be considered:

- a) For the completion of a specific task(s) or project;
- b) To relieve a vacant position arising from an employee taking leave;
- c) For the temporary provision of specialist skills that are not available within the organisation;
- d) To fill short term vacancies during the recruitment and selection process, resulting from the resignation of a permanent employee;
- e) Where there is significant uncertainty about the funding which underwrites the position;
- f) Where the supply and demand trends in the work area are genuinely unclear;
- g) To meet emergent peaks in demand where the use of labour hire or casual labour is less appropriate;
- h) As stipulated in any relevant parent Award.

Maximum term appointments should not fill an ongoing position or carry out work associated with ongoing functions within Council, except to replace an employee in circumstances specified in clauses b) and d).

An officer employed on a maximum term basis shall have access to the review and annual increments on the same basis as a permanent employee under the relevant Award.

3.3.7.JOB SHARE

This type of employment provides the option for two employees to work reduced hours and to share one full time job maximum of 36.25 (Stream A) ordinary hours per week. While job share would appear to be part time employment it is not. The salary is divided across the two partners however personal entitlements (e.g. annual leave, personal leave etc.) apply to each job share partner as they would normally.

3.3.8.TRAINEE

Council shall continue to offer Traineeships where appropriate.

Employment involves arrangements made through specific providers or with individuals directly, whereby the student engages in supported training and work.

The terms of employment for trainees shall be as required by the Vocational Education and Training (Commonwealth Powers) Act 2012, Further Education and Training Act 2014, and the relevant awards.

3.4. ANTI DISCRIMINATION

5.2. NINE (9) DAY FORTNIGHT

Notwithstanding the provisions of the Award, the parties have agreed that a nine-day fortnight working arrangement generally applies to all full-time employees, unless an alternative work pattern is agreed in accordance with the flexible work arrangements clause 5.7.

The Council may at any time in its discretion exclude an employee from the provisions of the nine (9) day fortnight arrangement where the inclusion of the employee would, in the opinion of Council, prejudice the efficient operation of the Council's business.

- Stream A Supervisors will work their ordinary hours, over a nine (9) day fortnight, as follows:

For new employees who may not have a sufficient balance of a rostered day off (RDO), their pay will be based on the ordinary hours which have been worked up until the day the RDO is taken, however this may mean that the employee has a negative RDO balance.

Time accrued and held in credit shall be taken as an RDO in each fortnightly period. The RDO will fall on the day in accordance with a schedule as determined by relevant Department Heads. Where an RDO falls on a Public Holiday, the employee shall be entitled to an alternative day off at a date mutually agreeable with their Supervisor.

Stream A employee's levels 1 – 7 who work on their designated RDO, have the option of banking the RDO or receiving payment at overtime rates for work on the RDO. Where the RDO is banked, it shall be taken at a later time mutually agreeable between the employee and their supervisor. A maximum of three (3) days (21.75 hours) can be accrued.

If an employee leaves the employment of Council for any reason, they will be paid out for hours held in credit at the ordinary rate. Employees with a negative balance will have the balance deducted at the ordinary rate.

5.4. VARIATION TO SPREAD OF HOURS

It is agreed that for specific projects or special circumstances and then only by mutual agreement between the Supervisor and employee concerned, the ordinary spread of hours may be altered so that the whole or part of the ordinary hours of duty are performed between the hours of 5.00 am and 8.00 pm, Monday to Friday, without penalty in the following situations:

- Projects where tidal influence precludes work being performed during the normal spread of hours.
- Projects where a planned interruption to essential services would be unreasonable during the normal spread of hours.

5.5. TIME OFF IN LIEU OF OVERTIME

TOIL will be taken at a time mutually agreed between the employee and their Supervisor. Where TOIL has not been taken within three months since the overtime was worked, the employer may direct the employee to take the TOIL by the giving of not less than 5 days' notice.

Where the TOIL has not been taken, or directed to be taken, within four months since the overtime was worked the employee shall be paid the equivalent of the time worked at the relevant overtime rates. Where TOIL has not been taken at the time of cessation of the employee's employment it shall be paid out at the relevant overtime rate/s.

5.6. SERVICE OVERTIME

Where an employee is required by Council to undertake Service Overtime, overtime claimed for such work shall be in accordance with the manufacture's specifications captured in the Service Overtime Recommendation Schedule. The parties agree and acknowledge that the Service Overtime Recommendation Schedule may require amendment or updating from time to time, and in such circumstances, consultation will occur with the relevant employee/s and Union, which will include the timing and phasing in of the changes. Service overtime does not include prestart checks which are to be completed in ordinary time.

5.7. FLEXIBLE WORKING ARRANGEMENTS

Council and an employee may agree to flexible working arrangements which include flextime four (4) day working week, work at alternative work locations, banked hours, make-up time, accrued and rostered days off and/or seasonal working arrangements, provided that such arrangement is agreeable to the employee and the arrangement is entered into without coercion or duress. Provided any such arrangements are in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the relevant Awards.

Flexible working arrangements must satisfy the following four (4) principles

- i. Current customer service requirements continue to be maintained;
- ii. They must be cost neutral;
- iii. They must be practical and workable;
- iv. They must not compromise workplace health and safety requirements.

Council must genuinely consider any flexibility request and provide a written response to an employee's flexibility request within 21 days of receipt of the request. Where an employee's flexibility request is denied, reasons for the denial should be detailed.

Any agreed Flexible Work Arrangement will be captured in writing and include any grounds for granting a request in part or subject to conditions.

6. PART SIX

6.1. TRAVEL TIME

Travel time allowance for all eligible employees as described under the Award Streams will be paid at penalty rates.

6.2. PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND TRAINING AND TRAINING TRAVEL TIME

Where Officers have approval to attend professional development or training that incurs travelling time outside of the ordinary spread of hours, they may not claim such travel time as overtime without the prior approval of their Manager, but may claim time off in lieu instead. This applies to Stream A employees who are entitled to time off in lieu arrangements.

If an employee is directed to attend a job specific training and/or development activity, the employee shall be entitled to their choice of overtime or time off in lieu in accordance with the applicable Certified Agreement or relevant Award rates.

7. PART SEVEN

7.1. LEAVE ACCRUAL

Entitlement to annual, personal and long service leave accrues progressively during each year of service according to the ordinary hours worked by the employee. Any deduction of full days is made according to the ordinary hours worked by the employee.

Where applicable, accrual which exceeds the allowable balance must be taken in the following order:

1. Accrued time off in lieu (TOIL)
2. Rostered days off (RDO's)
3. Annual Leave
4. Long Service Leave

Any accrued annual and long service leave to which the employee is entitled will be paid out upon termination.

7.2. ANNUAL LEAVE

For each completed year of service with Hinchinbrook Shire Council, permanent and fixed term employees (excluding casuals and school-based trainees) are entitled to five (5) weeks' paid annual leave.

Taking of annual leave is done in accordance with the following:

- Annual leave may be paid in advance where the employee indicates this on the Leave Request Form.
- Annual leave in periods of less than one (1) day may be approved in special circumstances.
- Public holidays do not form part of annual leave and are documented on the timesheet.
- Annual leave accruals must not exceed ten (10) weeks including pro rata entitlement.

An annual leave loading of 17.5% is paid when annual leave is taken, and will be paid out on the balance of accrued annual leave upon termination of employment with Council.

Where an employee has accrued an excessive amount of annual leave the employee will be required to participate in a leave reduction scheme. Such scheme shall require the employee to reduce their accrual bank of leave over an agreed period of time. For the purpose of this clause an excessive amount of leave is considered to be greater than ten (10) weeks and the leave reduction scheme is to be agreed by both parties.

7.3. PERSONAL LEAVE

Personal leave encompasses sick and carer's leave. It is agreed that for each completed year of service with Council, full time and part time employees (casuals excluded) are entitled to fifteen (15) days per annum of paid personal leave, which accrues on a pro rata entitlement basis from commencement.

Personal leave is cumulative, and it is agreed that there shall be no limit on the accumulation of leave entitlement. Personal leave may be taken for part of a day (for the number of hours absent) or in full days. Entitlement to personal leave is conditional upon the employee notifying their immediate Supervisor or Manager as soon as possible (usually prior to commencement unless genuine circumstances prevent this) of the absence and keeping the Supervisor/Manager informed throughout the absence as to their likely return.

Entitlement to personal leave exceeding two (2) consecutive days is subject to the employee providing Council sufficient evidence to satisfy a reasonable person that the employee requires access to personal leave due to an illness or injury, the need to provide care (in accordance with Clause 7.3.2) or where an unexpected emergency arises with respect to a member of the employee's immediate family or household. Reasonable evidence may include a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner or a Statutory Declaration.

Medical appointments relating to personal sickness or carer's leave should be made outside of working hours where possible.

7.3.1. SICK LEAVE

Paid sick leave is available to employees who are unable to attend work due to personal illness or injury. An employee who falls sick on an RDO shall not receive any further day in lieu thereof.

An employee, if while on approved annual leave is overtaken by illness shall, on production of a certificate signed by a duly qualified medical practitioner certifying that the employee is unfit to perform normal duties for a period of not less than five (5) days, shall be entitled on application to have such period of illness debited to the employees sick leave entitlements and the employees annual leave entitlement shall be adjusted accordingly.

7.3.2. CARER'S LEAVE

Paid carer's leave is taken from the employee's available sickness leave accrual.

Paid carer's leave is available to employees who are unable to attend work because they are required and are responsible for providing care or support to a member of their immediate family or household due to an illness or injury or unexpected emergency affecting that member.

An employee cannot take carer's leave if any other person is providing care for the same person unless there are special circumstances requiring more than one person to provide care.

7.4. BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

Full time and part time permanent or fixed term employees are entitled to paid bereavement leave on each occasion of the death of a member of the employee's immediate family or household.

Full-time and part-time employees shall, on the death of a member of their 'immediate family, as defined by Hinchinbrook Shire Councils definition of 'immediate family', be entitled to paid bereavement leave up to and including the day after the funeral of such person, subject to the conditions herein. Such leave shall be without deduction of pay for a period not exceeding the number of hours usually worked by the employee within five (5) consecutive business days, working back from the day after the funeral.

Proof of such death is to be furnished by the employee to the satisfaction of the Employer.

Awards only offer paid bereavement leave of two days, therefore Council's granting of five days exceeds the provisions of Awards. As such it has its own definition of "immediate family" as outlined under 1.5 definitions for the purpose of taking five paid days bereavement leave.

Paid bereavement leave of a period not exceeding two days for those individuals excluded from the definition above applies as per the Agreement definition of "immediate family".

Part Time employees are only entitled to be paid the days they would normally have worked within the five (5) consecutive business days up to and including the day after the funeral.

7.5. COMPASSIONATE LEAVE

Employees (excluding casuals) are entitled to two (2) days of Compassionate Leave on full pay, with casuals entitled to two (2) days unpaid Compassionate Leave, on each occasion when a member of the employee's immediate family or household:

- a) contracts or develops a personal illness that poses a serious threat to the person's life; or
- b) sustains a personal injury that poses a serious threat to the person's life.

When an employee accesses Compassionate Leave, evidence will need to be provided to Council in accordance with the Act.

7.6. LONG SERVICE LEAVE

Long service leave is granted to employees (including casuals) according to Award provisions. It currently arises from a combination of specific Award entitlements and the Industrial Relations Act 2016 as amended from time to time.

Employees are encouraged to take their leave as soon as possible after accrual. Nevertheless, leave accrued is to be taken within five (5) years of receiving the entitlement, and upon giving one (1) month notice.

Council reserves the right to direct an employee to take long service leave that has accrued beyond the five (5) years of receiving the entitlement, by providing three (3) months notice of the need to take the leave, as provided for in the Industrial Relations Act 2016.

It is recommended that long service leave be taken in no more than three periods of time. Other requests to take long service leave in smaller portions will be subject to the written approval of the CEO.

Portability of long service leave to and from Council will be managed in accordance with the conditions that apply under of the Local Government Regulation 2010.

Any public holidays that fall during periods of long service leave are paid as ordinary time.

An employee upon application in writing may be paid for all or part of an entitlement to long service leave instead of taking the leave as prescribed in section 110 of the Industrial Relations Act 2016

7.6.1. LONG SERVICE LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

Employees are entitled to thirteen (13) weeks long service leave on full pay after an initial ten (10) years continuous service, although by request, and with timing approved by Council, can access pro rata long service at any time after the initial seven (7) years' service. Stream A employees then become entitled to a further thirteen (13) weeks long service on full pay after a subsequent ten (10) years continuous service, which accrues, and can be taken at the pro rata rate of 1.3 weeks per annum.

7.7. NATURAL DISASTER LEAVE

Paid leave under this Clause would only apply where the employee is:

- a) Unable to report to work at any of Council's depots or offices from which that employee's duties are conducted by means of plant and/or equipment being stationed there and perform their required or alternative duties or attend training; or
- b) Unable to work remotely (e.g. from home); or
- c) Where continuing to work under extreme conditions is inadvisable due to Work Health and Safety considerations and the employee is required to leave the work site and return home, or in accordance with the Work Health and Safety Act, where applicable.

Approval of paid leave under this Clause will be subject to the employee providing sufficient evidence that they are required to undertake the following activities:

- a) ensure protection of family, property and livestock;
- b) secure their residence and belongings;
- c) undertake temporary or emergency repairs; and/or
- d) clean up to restore dwelling to a habitable state.

Where an employee is directed to work at a work location other than their usual place of work, due to a natural disaster or extreme weather event the employee will be entitled to claim motor vehicle allowance for any additional travel from their home to the alternative work location. Any additional time spent travelling to the alternative work location should be done during the employee's ordinary work hours, unless otherwise directed by Council. In circumstances where the additional travel must occur outside the employee's ordinary work hours such additional time shall be paid at ordinary time.

Where an employee is required by Council to continue working during a Natural Disaster or Extreme Weather Event to assist Council in responding to the event, the employee may be granted up to a maximum of two (2) day paid leave, following the event, subject to approval of the Chief Executive Officer or delegate. The leave will be for the purpose of allowing the employee to secure or clean up their residence or to attend to personal matters directly resulting from the event. Sufficient evidence of the need to access the leave may be requested by Council.

Where Natural Disaster Leave has been exhausted, employees may use accrued TOIL, RDO's and/or annual leave (in that priority order), or take leave without pay, subject to approval by their Supervisor/Manager.

7.8. PARENTAL LEAVE

As covered by the QES, this includes:

- Birth related leave for an employee who is pregnant or whose spouse gives birth
- Adoption leave, and
- Surrogacy leave.

7.8.1.UNPAID PARENTAL LEAVE

- e. To be eligible for further payments of paid parental leave, an individual must return to the workplace and work in their substantive role (either full time or part time) for a continuous period of twelve (12) months and must once again be the primary care giver. Where the employee does not return to the workplace for the above stipulated period, they will only be entitled to the further period as unpaid parental leave, provided their service remains continuous.
- f. Where a pregnant employee's pregnancy terminates in other than the birth of a living child, following 20 weeks gestation, the employee will be entitled to paid parental leave.

Council will commit to the development of workplace planning strategies to assist in ensuring safety of employees who are subject to family and domestic violence issues.

7.9. CULTURAL LEAVE

8. TERMINATION/REDUNDANCY

8.1. RESIGNATION BY EMPLOYEE

Resignation from employment is the voluntary exercise by an employee of his/her right to terminate their contract of employment with Council, by providing the period of notice required.

Any person who resigns (excluding casuals) must provide their resignation in writing to their immediate Supervisor/Manager.

Casuals are not required by law to provide notice, and as such, only need to advise their Supervisor when they intend to finish. Nevertheless, if a casual employee wishes to provide notice they may choose to do so.

A written resignation must include the date of resignation, period of notice provided and it must be clear as to when the final working day will be. Resignations via email are not usually acceptable.

The employee is responsible for advising Council of any change of address, as the last address on file is where any final information and the next Payment Summary will be sent to.

For Stream A Employees and those covered by the following notice is required:

For 1 year or less continuous service:	1 week notice
Over 1 year and up to the completion of 3 years continuous service:	2 weeks notice
Over 3 years and up to the completion of 5 years continuous service:	3 weeks notice
Over 5 years continuous service:	4 weeks notice

If the employee fails to give the correct notice, Council retains the right to withhold monies due to the employee with a maximum amount equal to the period of notice that should have been provided.

A shorter period of notice than that required may be agreed upon between Council and the employee.

Council may decide that they do not wish the employee to work their notice period, in which case payment in lieu of notice will be made either for the full or part period of notice, as applicable.

Where payment in lieu of notice is made, the payment is based on ordinary time wages the employee would have received had they worked during the notice period including allowances, loadings and penalties and any other amounts payable under the employment contract.

Where Council property has not been returned upon request by the Supervisor or Manager, Council retains the right to withhold monies from the final payment until such property is returned in a good condition.

8.2. TERMINATION BY COUNCIL

Termination of employment may be initiated by Council because of situations not limited to misconduct, performance, inability to perform the inherent requirements of the role, during probation or because a position becomes redundant.

When Council terminates an employee (except for casual employees), the relevant notice period identified above will be given or payment will be made in lieu of the full or part period of notice, with the exception of where an employee has been found to have engaged in misconduct in accordance with Section 121 of the Act.

In addition to the above periods of notice, any employee over 45 years of age at the time of the notice being given notice with not less than 2 years continuous service, is entitled to an additional week's notice.

The amount of notice given to a person on a traineeship may be determined by the agreement that has been signed by both parties, or as required by the relevant legislation.

Casual employees are subject to termination at any time without notice, provided that payment of the minimum engagement period is made on the date of termination, and subject to the following:

- Where a casual employee has worked in a continuous, regular and systematic basis for a period of 12 months or longer, and has a reasonable expectation of ongoing employment, it will be taken into consideration whether a period of notice of termination by Council is applicable or not.

The period of notice in this clause does not apply to:

- a) cases of misconduct justifying summary dismissal; or
- b) to employees engaged for a specific period of time or for a specific task or tasks, including trainees covered by a training contract for a specified term; or
- c) to casual employees.

8.3. TERMINATION PROVISIONS RELATING TO MAXIMUM TERM EMPLOYMENT

- without notice in the event of misconduct; or
- By providing the officer six (6) months pay in lieu of notice or the pay due to the employee for the balance of the contract whichever is the lesser amount.
- In the above instance, both parties may agree in writing that the six months (or balance of contract) may be worked in whole or in part by the employee.

Maximum term employment can be terminated by the employee by providing four (4) weeks notice, or a lesser period may be agreed by both parties.

8.4. REDUNDANCY

All attempts will be made to avoid redundancies and all reasonable alternatives will be considered prior to redundancy. However, in the unfortunate situation where the need for redundancy is identified, Council is committed to ensuring that any employee without a position as a result of redundancy will be provided with a competitive severance package and support.

Redundancy occurs when an employer decides that the employer no longer wishes the job the officer has been doing to be done by anyone and this is not due to the ordinary or customary turnover of labour.

Employees on fixed term contracts are not entitled to access redundancy provisions.

8.4.1. PROCESS FOR REDUNDANCY

The Council will, within a three (3) month period:

- Make every reasonable attempt to redeploy or appoint the employee to an alternative suitable position;
- Provide appropriate training in accordance with this agreement to assist the employee to carry out the duties of a redeployed or appointed position; or
- If redeployment or appointment to a position is not practicable, make a written offer of the involuntary retrenchment package to the employee concerned.

Counselling through Council's Employee Assistance Program may be provided to affected employees or to their work colleagues as deemed necessary.

8.4.2. PERIOD OF NOTICE

A minimum of eight (8) weeks notice shall be given to employees for involuntary redundancies, regardless of years of service.

Where redundancy is to occur, the employee will be provided with a letter confirming the conditions, a final payment document, statement of service and a settlement agreement to be signed by the employee.

During the period of notice, the employee will be kept informed of any suitable vacant positions to be advertised. The employee also shares the responsibility of identifying other suitable vacancies and seeking advice from their Manager or Human Resources about such roles.

8.4.3. DISCUSSIONS BEFORE REDUNDANCY

Where the Council has made a definite decision that it no longer wishes the job the employee has been doing to be done by anyone and this is not due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour and the decision may lead to termination of employment, Council shall hold discussions with the employees directly affected and, if they request, their relevant union representative.

The discussions shall take place as soon as practicable after the Council has made the decision, and discussions will include the reasons for the proposed terminations, any reasonable and practicable measures considered to avoid or minimise the terminations and measures to mitigate any adverse effects of any terminations on the employees concerned.

For the purposes of the discussion the Council shall as soon as practicable provide in writing to the employees concerned and, if they request, their relevant union representative: all relevant information about the proposed terminations, including the reasons for the proposed terminations, the number and categories of employees likely to be affected, the number of workers normally employed, and the period over which the terminations are likely to be carried out, provided that Council shall not be required to disclose confidential information, the disclosure of which would be harmful to Council's interests.

8.4.4. REDEPLOYMENT

Council would ideally like to retain its employees and therefore would prefer the outcome of any redundancy situation to be redeployment to another suitable role. Council will consider any other roles of interest to the employee as a redeployment option, including their suitability to the role and any retraining required.

The employee will be offered or advised of any suitable redeployment options and it is the responsibility of the employee to advise their Manager of their interest within the timeframe provided.

Where the employee has not identified or been appointed to a suitable redeployment option within the notice period, their position will become redundant at the end of the notice period.

Where the employee accepts redeployment to a suitable alternate position at Council, the employee is not entitled to receive compensation for redundancy.

8.4.5. TRANSFER TO OTHER DUTIES

Where an employee is transferred to lower paid duties through redeployment, the employee is entitled to the same period of notice of transfer as he/she would have been entitled to if his/her employment had been terminated. On transfer to the lower paid duties, Council will maintain the employee's ordinary rate of pay for the classification held at the time of transfer for a period of six (6) months or until the rate for the lower classification exceeds the actual rate, whichever is the earlier.

8.4.6.EFFECTIVE RETRAINING

Where an employee is transferred to or offered a position in a different role requiring the application of different skills, knowledge and abilities, Council agrees to provide effective skills development and retraining to facilitate the immediate or ultimate appointment to the position offered.

8.4.7.TIME OFF WORK DURING THE NOTICE PERIOD

During the period of notice of termination given by Council, an employee is allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.

The employee is required to provide as much notice as possible to their Supervisor/Manager of the intended appointment time.

Once the employee has used more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee shall, at the request of the employer, be required to produce proof of attendance at an interview or he/she may not receive payment for time absent.

8.4.8.SEVERANCE PAY

If, by the end of the notice period, a redeployment option has not been taken, severance payments will apply to eligible employees.

An employee whose employment is terminated is entitled to the amount of severance pay outlined in Clause 8.4.9 Involuntary Severance Pay Table. The payment shall be equal to the employee's current ordinary rate of pay, for each year of continuous service with Hinchinbrook Shire Council. A pro-rata amount shall be paid for each incomplete year of continuous service up to the final date of employment.

Payments made to "eligible casuals" as defined under the Award Streams A, B and C will be pro-rated according to the average hours worked over the period of continuous service.

The Council, subject to its approval, on an employee-by-employee basis, may be prepared to make an offer of voluntary redundancy to other employees of Council not subject to involuntary redundancy.

Payments in respect to voluntary redundancies shall be the greater of $6500 or eight (8) weeks pay, in addition to the severance pay rates established in the table below for involuntary redundancies. An employee who is offered voluntary redundancy must accept the offer within two (2) weeks of the offer being made, otherwise the offer will lapse.

8.4.9.INVOLUNTARY SEVERANCE PAY TABLE

YEARS OF CONTINUOUS SERVICE (completed)	SEVERANCE PAY (weeks pay*)
Less than 1 year	2
1 year and up to 2 years	4
2 years and up to 3 years	6
3 years and up to 4 years	8
4 years and up to 5 years	10
5 years and up to 10 years	10 + [1.75 (yrs of service - 5)]
10 years and up to 15 years	18.75 + [1.5 (yrs of service - 10)]
15 years and up to 20 years	26.25 + [1.25 (yrs of service - 15)]
20 years and over	32.5 + [1 (yrs of service - 20)]

For example, if an employee has 6.5 years continuous service, severance payment = 10 + [1.75 (6.5-5) weeks pay] = 12.625 weeks pay. "Weeks pay," means the ordinary time rate of pay for the officer concerned.

In addition, any accrued annual leave, annual leave loading and long service leave is paid in accordance with legislation.

8.4.10. TAXATION

Bona fide redundancies will be taxed in accordance with relevant legislation. Employees are responsible for their personal taxation circumstances and are encouraged to seek independent financial advice in relation to any finalisation of employment payment.

8.4.11. EMPLOYEE LEAVING DURING THE NOTICE PERIOD

An employee whose employment is terminated for reasons set out in clause 8.4 hereof may terminate his/her employment during the period of notice and, if so, shall be entitled to the same benefits and payments under this clause had he/she remained with the employer respondent until the expiry of such notice, provided that in such circumstances the employee shall not be entitled to payment in lieu of notice.

8.4.12. ALTERNATIVE EMPLOYMENT

Council, in a particular redundancy situation, may make application to the Industrial Relations Commission to have the general severance pay prescription varied if Council sources acceptable alternative employment for the employee.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the paragraph above where an employee whose position is no longer required in accordance with this clause, finds or is found suitable employment with another Local Government or Other Authority, prior to termination, the officer shall be ineligible for payment of severance pay.

8.4.13. RECOGNITION OF PRIOR SERVICE

For the purpose of calculating 'years of continuous service' to be applied in the calculation of severance payment, years of service will be taken to be that amount applicable in determining the employee's Long Service Leave entitlements. This arrangement then includes immediate prior service with other Queensland Local Governments.

8.4.14. EXEMPTION FROM REDUNDANCY

Redundancy provisions shall not apply where employment is terminated as a consequence of conduct that justifies instant dismissal or in the case of casual employees, trainees, temporaries or employees engaged for a specific period of time or for a specified task or tasks.

8.4.15. TRANSITION TO RETIREMENT

Council wishes to provide support to employees seeking to transition to retirement. To achieve this, Council wants to work with employees to develop a retirement plan which supports a positive transition for both parties.

Subject to operational requirements, an employee and Council may enter into an agreement for the employee to work on a phased retirement arrangement.

This is to facilitate the transfer of corporate knowledge, skills and provide guidance and mentoring to other employees prior to retirement, for the mutual benefit of the employee and Council.

Transition to retirement arrangements may include but are not limited to the following:

- (i) Utilisation of accrued leave to maintain full time status wages while working part time hours without reduction in superannuation benefits.
- (ii) Working agreed blocks of work (annualised hours) using a combination of either accrued leave, banked RDO's, TOIL, or leave without pay over an agreed period of time. For example, two (2) months' work, two (2) months leave in rotation.

Any such arrangements between Council and the employee will be reached through consultation and will be documented in writing confirming the agreed pattern of work required, which may include (as applicable), weeks to be worked over the period, minimum ordinary hours per week, the days on which the work is to be performed and daily starting and finishing times. These arrangements through consultation may be varied by mutual agreement between the employee and HSC and any agreed amendments documented.

All leave entitlement balances accrued immediately prior to accepting a transition to retirement arrangement will be recognised at time of the arrangement. Where an employee has accrued excessive Annual leave as defined in Clause 7.2 the employee entering into the transition to retirement arrangement may retain the excessive leave balance until date of retirement unless otherwise elected. On commencement of the transition to retirement arrangement, all leave will then accrue in accordance with the relevant hours of work clauses within the Agreement and/ or applicable parent awards.

9. PART NINE MISCELLANEOUS

9.1. CHRISTMAS SHUTDOWN PERIOD

Council closes its business operations for a shut down period over Christmas and New Year, depending on operational needs, some departments are closed for longer. Only skeleton outdoor crews are required during this shut down period. A lot of factors are considered when allocating time for a shutdown period each year, therefore timeframes are determined on a year by year basis to ensure local weather conditions, productivity, overheads and the health and well being of employees is all taken into consideration.

Notification of the close down period will be provided ninety (90) days before the Christmas shut down period.

If a new employee has less than a full year's accrual of annual leave, the employee shall take annual leave only for the duration of leave that has been accrued at the time of commencement of the closedown. In this situation, an employee may save RDO's and TOIL toward this occasion.
