PART 2 - FLEXIBILITY

2.1 Enterprise flexibility

- 2.1.1 As part of a process of improvement in productivity and efficiency, discussion should take place to provide more flexible working arrangements, improvement in the quality of working life, enhancement of skills, training and job satisfaction and to encourage consultative mechanisms across the workplace.
- 2.1.2 The consultative processes established in accordance with clause 2.1 may provide an appropriate mechanism for consideration of matters relevant to clause 2.1.1. Union delegates at the place of work may be involved in such discussions.
- 2.1.3 Any proposed genuine agreement reached between an employer and Employee/s is contingent upon the agreement being submitted to the Commission in accordance with Chapter 6 of the Act and is to have no force or effect until approval is given.

2.2 Procedures to implement facilitative Award provisions

Wherever facilitative provisions appear in this Award which allow for determination of the conditions of employment by agreement between the Chairperson and the Union or the Chairperson and the majority of Employees affected, the following procedures shall apply:

- (a) Facilitative Award provisions can be negotiated between management and Employees who are directly affected by such proposals or between management and the Union depending upon the particular Award provisions.
- (b) Employees may be represented by their local Union delegate/s and shall have the right to be represented by their local Union official/s.
- (c) Facilitative Award provisions can only be implemented by agreement.
- (d) In determining the outcome from facilitative provisions, neither party should unreasonably withhold agreement.
- (e) Agreement is defined as obtaining consent of greater than 50% of Employees directly affected or of the Union depending upon the particular Award provisions.
- (f) Where a provision refers to agreement by the majority of Employees affected, all Employees directly affected shall be consulted as a group. Should the consultation process identify Employees with specific concerns which relate to either equity or occupational health and safety issues, such concerns may be catered for on an individual basis subject to operational requirements.
- (g) Any agreement reached must be documented, and shall incorporate a review period.
- (h) Where the agreement relates to either the working of ordinary hours on other than a Monday to Friday basis, the introduction of Shift Work or change to the shift roster, the Union is to be notified in writing at least one week in advance of agreement being sought.
- (i) Where it becomes necessary for any reason to amend a CMC Policy referred to in this Award, the proposed amendments will be forwarded to the Union with a view to obtaining agreement with respect to the amended Policy. In the event that agreement cannot be achieved, either the CMC or the Union can refer the matter to the Commission in accordance with the provisions of clause 3.1 of this Award.

PART 3 - COMMUNICATION, CONSULTATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

3.1 Prevention and settlement of disputes

- 3.1.1 The objectives of this procedure are the avoidance and resolution of any disputes over matters covered by this agreement, by measures based on the provision of information and explanation, consultation, co-operation and negotiation.

- 3.1.2 Subject to legislation, while the dispute procedure is being followed, normal work is to continue except in the case of a genuine safety issue. The status quo existing before the emergence of a dispute is to continue whilst the procedure is being followed. No party shall be prejudiced as to the final settlement by the continuation of work.
- 3.1.3 There is a requirement for management to provide relevant information and explanation and consult with the appropriate Employee representatives.
- 3.1.4 In the event of any disagreement between the parties as to the interpretation or implementation of this Award, the following procedures shall apply:
- (a) The matter is to be discussed by the Employee's Union representative and/or the Employee/s concerned (where appropriate) and the immediate supervisor in the first instance. The discussion should take place within 24 hours and the procedure should not extend beyond 7 days.
 - (b) If the matter is not resolved as per clause 3.1.4(a), it shall be referred by the Union representative and/or the Employee/s to the appropriate management representative who shall arrange a conference of the parties to discuss the matter. This process should not extend beyond 7 days.
 - (c) If the matter remains unresolved it may be referred to the Chairperson or nominee for discussion and appropriate action. This process should not exceed 14 days.
 - (d) If the matter is not resolved then it may be referred by either party to the Commission for conciliation.
- 3.1.5 Nothing contained in this procedure shall prevent the Queensland Government from intervening in respect of matters in dispute, should such action be considered conducive to achieving resolution.

3.2 Employee grievance procedures

- 3.2.1 The objectives of the procedure are to promote the prompt resolution of grievances by consultation, co-operation and discussion; to reduce the level of disputation; and to promote efficiency, effectiveness and equity in the workplace.
- 3.2.2 This procedure applies to all industrial matters within the meaning of the Act.
- 3.2.3 Stage 1: In the first instance the Employee shall inform such Employee's immediate supervisor of the existence of the grievance and they shall attempt to solve the grievance. It is recognised that an Employee may exercise the right to consult such Employee's Union representative during the course of Stage 1.
- 3.2.4 Stage 2: If the grievance remains unresolved, the Employee shall refer the grievance to the next in line management ("the manager"). The manager will consult with the parties. The Employee may exercise the right to consult or be represented by such Employee's Union representative during the course of Stage 2.
- 3.2.5 Stage 3: If the grievance is still unresolved, the manager will advise the Chairperson and the aggrieved Employee may submit the matter in writing to the Chairperson if such Employee wishes to pursue the matter further. If desired by either party, the matter shall also be notified to the Union.

The Chairperson shall ensure that:

- (a) the aggrieved Employee or such Employee's Union representative has the opportunity to present all aspects of the grievance;
- (b) the grievance shall be investigated in a thorough, fair and impartial manner.

The Chairperson may appoint another person to investigate the grievance. The Chairperson may consult with the Union in appointing an investigating Employee. The appointed person shall be other than the Employee's supervisor or manager.

If the matter is notified to the Union, the investigating Employee shall consult with the Union during the course of the investigation. The Chairperson shall advise the Employee initiating the grievance, such Employee's Union representative and any other Employee directly concerned of the determinations made as a result of the investigation of the grievance.

The Chairperson may delegate such Chairperson's grievance resolution powers under clause 3.2 to a nominated representative.

3.2.6 The procedure is to be completed in accordance with the following time frames unless the parties agree otherwise:

Stage 1: Discussions should take place between the Employee and such Employee's supervisor within 24 hours and the procedure shall not extend beyond 7 days.

Stage 2: Not to exceed 7 days.

Stage 3: Not to exceed 14 days.

3.2.7 If the grievance is not settled the matter may be referred to the Commission by the Employee or the Union, as appropriate.

3.2.8 Subject to legislation, while the grievance procedure is being followed, normal work is to continue, except in the case of a genuine safety issue. The status quo existing before the emergence of a grievance or dispute is to continue while the procedure is being followed. No party shall be prejudiced as to the final settlement by the continuation of work.

- (e) The period of notice in this clause shall not apply in the case of dismissal for misconduct or other grounds that justify instant dismissal, or in the case of a Casual Employee, or an Employee engaged by the hour or day, or an Employee engaged for a specific period or tasks.
- (f) It is not lawful for the Chairperson to offset notice of termination against any period of annual leave or part thereof.

4.2.3 Notice of termination by Employee

The notice of termination required to be given by an Employee shall be 2 weeks. If an Employee fails to give notice, the employer shall have the right to withhold monies due to the Employee with a maximum amount of 2 weeks pay.

4.2.4 Time off during notice period

During the period of notice of termination given by the employer, an Employee shall be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. This time off shall be taken at times that are convenient to the Employee after consultation with the employer.

Provided that where the Award makes provision for alteration of any of the matters referred to herein an alteration shall be deemed not to have significant effect.

4.3.2 Employer's duty to consult over change

- (a) The employer shall consult the Employees affected and, where relevant, their Union or Unions about the introduction of the changes, the effects the changes are likely to have on Employees (including the number and categories of Employees likely to be dismissed, and the time when, or the period over which, the employer intends to carry out the dismissals), and the ways to avoid or minimise the effects of the changes (e.g. by finding alternate employment).
- (b) The consultation must occur as soon as practicable after making the decision referred to in clause 4.3.1.
- (c) For the purpose of such consultation the employer shall provide, in writing to the Employees concerned, and, where relevant, their Union or Unions, all relevant information about the changes including the nature of the changes proposed, the expected effects of the changes on Employees, and any other matters likely to affect Employees:

Provided that any employer shall not be required to disclose confidential information, the disclosure of which would be adverse to the employer's interests.

4.4 Redundancy

4.4.1 Consultation before terminations

- (a) Where the employer no longer wishes the job the Employee has been doing to be done by anyone, and this is not due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour, and that decision may lead to termination of employment, the employer shall consult the Employee directly affected and where relevant, their Union or Unions.

- (b) The consultation shall take place as soon as it is practicable after the employer has made a decision, which will invoke the provisions of clause 4.4.1(a) and shall cover the reasons for the proposed terminations, measures to avoid or minimise the terminations and/or their adverse affects on the Employees concerned.
- (c) For the purpose of the consultation the employer shall, as soon as practicable, provide in writing to the Employees concerned and, where relevant, their Union or Unions, all relevant information about the proposed terminations including the reasons for the proposed terminations, the number and categories of Employees likely to be affected, the number of workers normally employed and the period over which the terminations are likely to be carried out:

Provided that any employer shall not be required to disclose confidential information, the disclosure of which would be adverse to the employer's interests.

4.4.2 Transfer to lower paid duties

- (a) Where an Employee is transferred to lower paid duties for reasons set out in clause 4.4.1, the Employee shall be entitled to the same period of notice of transfer as the Employee would have been entitled to if the Employee's employment had been terminated under clause 4.2.
- (b) The employer may, at the employer's option, make payment in lieu thereof of an amount equal to the difference between the former amounts the employer would have been liable to pay and the new lower amount the employer is liable to pay the Employee for the number of weeks of notice still owing.
- (c) The amounts must be worked out on the basis of:
 - (i) the ordinary working hours to be worked by the Employee; and
 - (ii) the amounts payable to the Employee for the hours including for example, allowances, loadings and penalties; and
